UNCLAIMED FUNDS

MIGHT BE WAITING FOR YOU!

You may have unclaimed funds waiting for you!

The New York State Comptroller's Office recently announced that it has over $14.5 billion in unclaimed funds and they are urging New Yorkers to see if any of it belongs to them. Last year, New York State set a national record for the most unclaimed funds returned in one year, totaling $452 million!

Under State law, banks, insurance companies, utilities and many other businesses with funds that have been dormant or forgotten must turn those funds over to the State Comptroller's Office, which acts as a custodian until the funds are returned to their rightful owner.

Some examples of unclaimed funds include:

- Lost Checks
- Rental Security Deposits
- Inactive Bank Accounts – Savings, Checking and CDs
- Insurance Benefits/Policies
- Utility Deposits
- Court Funds

Don't miss an opportunity to see if any of New York State's $14.5 billion in unclaimed funds belongs to you!
