

NEW YORK STATE SENATOR

Michael H. Ranzenhofer

Maple Day 2017

SENATOR MICHAEL H. RANZENHOFER March 21, 2017

| ISSUE: AGRICULTURE

New York has the most tappable maple trees in United States

Albany, NY - Senator Ranzenhofer joined maple producers and students from the Future Farmers of America to celebrate Maple Day 2017 at the New York State Capitol. The day is intended to recognize New York's standing as the #2 producer of maple products in the United States.