Senator James Tedisco

April 10, 2017

"Just in time for Easter, today I literally had one of the sweetest small business tours ever by visiting EMVI Chocolate in Broadalbin. EMVI Chocolate is a great small business success story in the 49th Senate District thanks to the hard work of Victor and Irina Gelman and their staff. Their delicious hand-crafted chocolates are Fair Trade and Pride of New York certified and made on site with all natural ingredients. Best wishes to the Gelman family for continued success! Thanks also to Mark Kilmer from the Fulton Montgomery Regional Chamber of Commerce and his team for joining us for this tour," said Senator Jim Tedisco (R,C,I,REF-Glenville), who noted that he helped advocate for over $700 million in workers compensation reform in this year's state budget to help small businesses like EMVI Chocolate grow and create jobs.
