Reentry, Reintegration, & Reducing Recidivism

JESSE HAMILTON April 13, 2017

| ISSUE: JUSTICE, PRISONS, END MASS INCARCERATION, JUSTICE REFORM, CRIMINAL JUSTICE REFORM

Really constructive meeting with representatives from The Osborne Association today. We had a chance to discuss, among other topics, the important ways New York's justice system can reduce recidivism and reintegrate formerly incarcerated individuals. I always benefit from groups sharing the insights they gain from their on-the-ground work.
