Senator Robach To Host Free Electronics Recycling Event

JOSEPH E. ROBACH   May 10, 2017

| ISSUE: SENATOR ROBACH, ELECTRONIC RECYCLING, MONROE COUNTY

On Sunday, June 4th, Senator Joe Robach will be once again be hosting a Free Electronics Recycling Event open to the community. This event will run from 9:30am to 1:30pm at the Monroe County ecoPark at 10 Avion Drive, Rochester, NY 14624.

At this free event, community residents will be able to safely recycling their old and unwanted electronics such as laptops, desktops, televisions, video game consoles, cell phones, printers, MP3 players, DVD players, among many other electronics, without having to leave their car. Due to the regulations regarding eledtornics reccyling, items that contain freon, such as refrigerators and other household appliances cannont be accepted. For more information on acceptable and unacceptable items, please visit www.sunnking.com.

Senator Robach is proud to partner with Sunnking, Monroe County, Spectrum and Waste Management to offer this event free of charge to the community.