Senator Elaine Phillips (R-Manhasset) recently visited with students in Mrs. Jessica Moriarty's fourth grade class at East Hills Elementary School.

Senator Phillips talked with the students about her job as a New York State Senator and listened to their ideas about how to protect the environment, reduce pollution and keep our air and water clean.

Senator Phillips (back row center) is pictured with Mrs. Moriarty and her students. They are joined by Roslyn Board of Education President Meryl Waxman Ben-Levy and Assistant Principal Nichole Lewis.
