Senator Phillips Attends UMJCA's Unite For Life Color Walk

ELAINE PHILLIPS June 14, 2017

Senator Elaine Phillips (R-Manhasset) recently attended the United Mashadi Jewish Community of America (UMJCA) Unite for Life Color Walk.

The event brought many people together from the Great Neck community and beyond to support those who are battling cancer, both physically and financially. The event was held at North Hempstead Beach Park.
