

NEW YORK STATE SENATOR

Elaine Phillips

Senator Phillips & Village of Stewart Manor Celebrate Independence Day

ELAINE PHILLIPS July 6, 2017

Senator Elaine Phillips (R-Manhasset) recently joined with the Village of Stewart Manor in celebrating Independence Day.

Senator Phillips took part in the Village's annual Fourth of July Parade. The parade has been a community tradition for the last 19 years and features patriotic floats, bands and antique cars. Local first responders, veterans organizations and community leaders all took part in the parade.

Senator Phillips (right) and former Senator Jack Martins (second left) are pictured with residents along the parade route in the Village of Stewart Manor.