

NEW YORK STATE SENATOR

Thomas F. O'Mara

Promoting summer reading and public libraries at the Addison Public Library's summer reading program

THOMAS F. O'MARA July 13, 2017

| ISSUE: SUMMER READING

We're always grateful for opportunities to support our local public libraries.

Senator O'Mara and Assemblyman Phil Palmesano visited the Addison Public Library summer reading program on Thursday, July 13th.

O'Mara and Palmesano said, "We're always grateful for opportunities to support our local public libraries. The Southern Tier and Finger Lakes regions are lucky to have an incredible network of public libraries offering access to books and other reading activities, including summer reading opportunities."

[In the photo above, from left to right: Former Steuben County Legislator Pat McAllister, Library Director Lori Patterson, Senator O'Mara, and Assemblyman Palmesano.]

The New York Library Association presented O'Mara with its 2016 "Outstanding Advocate for Libraries Award."

O'Mara also reminded area residents that he is sponsoring an online reading program this summer. Find out more and participate HERE.