Senator Helming to Sponsor Upcoming Geneva Red Wings Game

JONATHAN MONFILETTO - 315-568-9816 July 18, 2017

Senator Pamela A. Helming (R,C,I-Canandaigua) is pleased to announce that she will sponsor the upcoming Geneva Red Wings game against the Newark Pilots.

The Perfect Game Collegiate Baseball League matchup will start at 4:05 p.m. Sunday, July 23, 2017 at McDonough Park, 180 Lyceum St., Geneva. As part of Senator Helming's sponsorship of the game, the first 120 people at the stadium will receive free tickets into the game.

"I appreciate the opportunity from the Geneva Red Wings to sponsor this game at McDonough Park between the Red Wings and the Newark Pilots. I look forward to watching a great game between two local teams in the 54th District. The Perfect Game Collegiate Baseball League showcases college-level players honing their skills in the summertime to advance their athletic careers. I am happy to be a part of this occasion," Senator Helming said.

Senator Helming represents the 54th Senate District, which consists of Seneca and Wayne Counties, parts of Cayuga and Ontario Counties, and the towns of Lansing and Webster. For more information, please visit Senator Helming's website, or follow @SenatorHelming on Facebook or Twitter.
