

NEW YORK STATE SENATOR

Thomas F. O'Mara

Senator O'Mara's weekly column 'From the Capitol' ~ for the week of July 31, 2017 ~ 'Tick-related diseases: prevention is key'

THOMAS F. O'MARA July 31, 2017

| ISSUE: LYME AND TICK-BORNE DISEASES

Local health officials across the Southern Tier and Finger Lakes have renewed their efforts to spread the word that “prevention is key” when it comes to tick-related illnesses and diseases. Senator O'Mara offers his weekly perspective on many of the key challenges and issues facing the Legislature, as well as on legislative actions, local initiatives, state programs and policies, and more. Stop back every Monday for Senator O'Mara's latest column "From the Capitol..."

This week, "Tick-related diseases: prevention is key"