Senator Pamela A. Helming (R,C,I-Canandaigua) is pleased to announce that her satellite office in Wayne County has moved from the Public Safety Building to the Wayne County Court House. “I am so thankful to the Wayne County Board of Supervisors and Chairman Leroy for providing us with this opportunity. My staff and I look forward to meeting with area residents and business owners and continuing to work hard on their behalf,” Senator Helming said.

Constituents who visit the satellite office will have the opportunity to talk with Senator Helming or her staff about any issues or concerns they feel are important. Constituents may also contact the office by telephone at (315) 946-6380 to schedule an appointment or to speak with a team member.
