Linking New York & the Caribbean

JESSE HAMILTON September 19, 2017

| ISSUE: ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT, COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT, ECONOMIC EMPOWERMENT

It was an honor to join leaders from New York and the Caribbean at the SUNY UWI Center for Leadership and Sustainable Development yesterday. The informative panels discussed the range of topics impacting the Caribbean including clean energy, climate change, and economic challenges and opportunities. I had the opportunity to discuss trade finance, remittances, and correspondent banking relationships. I look forward to taking steps to further help our immigrant communities, the Caribbean, and all New Yorkers.
