Bus safety is part of public safety

JESSE HAMILTON September 28, 2017

| ISSUE: ROAD SAFETY, BUSES, PUBLIC SAFETY

Bus safety is part of public safety. The measures we bring forward today serve to ensure the unsafe practices that contributed to the tragic deaths on September 18th are not repeated. Bus companies need to know the importance of further transparency and full compliance with DMV disclosure rules. That's why I am proud to advance these measures with my colleagues and reassure New Yorkers that their safety is our top priority.
