

NEW YORK STATE SENATOR

Velmanette Montgomery

Senator Montgomery receives perfect score on the 2017 Environmental Scorecard

Senator Velmanette Montgomery

October 11, 2017

ISSUE:

- Environment
- Clean Air and Water
- Environmental Conservation

"Fighting on behalf of a community that is home to notorious Superfund sites and which suffers from the pollution belched from the congested highways in New York – that's what Senator Velmanette Montgomery is all about. Consistently one of the Senate's top performers, her 100 score this year exemplifies her commitment to her constituents."

EPL / ENVIRONMENTAL ADVOCATES

Senator Montgomery is proud to earn a "100" score on the EPL/Environmental Advocates' 2017 Environmental Scorecard. Other members of the Senate Democratic Conference to earn a perfect score include: Conference Leader Senator Andrea Stewart-Cousins, Senator Jamaal Bailey, Senator Brian Benjamin, Senator Martin Malave Dilan, Senator Brad Hoylman, Senator Todd Kaminsky, Senator Timothy M. Kennedy, Senator Liz Krueger, Senator George Latimer, Senator Kevin S. Parker, Senator J. Gustavo Rivera, Senator José Serrano and Senator Daniel Squadron.

For almost five decades, EPL/Environmental Advocates has been a leading voice on issues impacting our state's environment. Each year, EPL/Environmental Advocates tracks the voting records of the New York State Legislature on bills that could help or harm our air, land, and water and publishes them in our annual scorecard, known as the Environmental Scorecard. To read the 2017 scorecard, download the PDF or visit <http://eplvotersguide.org/wp-content/uploads/2017/10/2017-Environmental-Scorecard.pdf>

To learn more about EPL/Environmental Advocates, visit <http://www.eany.org/> and <http://eplvotersguide.org/>