Senator Patrick M. Gallivan (R-C-I, Elma) joined representatives from Friends of Knox Farm State Park, New York State Parks and the State Department of Transportation to unveil new highway signs directing motorists to Knox Farm State Park in East Aurora. Senator Gallivan requested the DOT erect signage to better promote the park and increase tourism.

A total of six signs have been installed, including signs along Route 400 and on the Route 400 ramps to Jamison Road. Signs are also posted at the traffic circle at Route 20A and Seneca Street in East Aurora.

Knox Farm State Park is the former estate of the Knox Family and covers 633 acres.
