

NEW YORK STATE SENATOR

Elaine Phillips

Senator Elaine Phillips Meets With Carle Place Government Students

ELAINE PHILLIPS November 15, 2017

Senator Elaine Phillips recently met with student government officers from Carle Place High School and Middle School to discuss the importance of leadership, ethics and government.

"Our government on local, state and federal levels depend on the involvement and contribution of young people like those in the Carle Place School District," Senator Elaine Phillips said. "Thank you to Principal Thomas DePaola, Superintendent David Flatley and Erika Fallik for inviting me to meet with district's Student Government to listen to the ideas of our future community leaders."