Sen. Helming Tours Local Businesses in Webster

JONATHAN MONFILETTO - 315-568-9816 November 27, 2017

WEBSTER – Senator Pam Helming recently toured three local businesses in Webster to learn more about their operations and the successes and challenges they face. Led by Webster Chamber of Commerce President and CEO Barry Howard, Senator Helming visited Expressive Beginnings Child Care, Webster Eyecare Associates, and Stan D. Drabik DDS Orthodontic Specialist. At Expressive Beginnings, Senator Helming saw what great early childhood education programs the childcare center offers to the Webster community. At Webster Eyecare Associates, she learned how the company makes its own lenses and works with Olympic shooters to make highly specialized glasses for their sport. Additionally, Dr.

Stan and Kris Drabik showed Senator Helming the behind-the-scenes aspects of their operation, which is the largest orthodontics practice in Webster.

“It is important for me to reach out to all of our communities and see as many of the businesses as I can so that I can learn about their successes as well as their challenges. I am proud to represent so many innovative, job-creating business that provide great service to the Webster community. Thank you to Mr. Howard for putting together another fantastic tour and accompanying me on it,” Senator Helming said

Senator Helming represents the 54th Senate District, which consists of Seneca and Wayne Counties, parts of Cayuga and Ontario Counties, and the towns of Lansing and Webster. For more information, please visit Senator Helming’s website, or follow @SenatorHelming on Facebook or Twitter.
