| ISSUE: SENIOR GOLDEN GATHERING

(Rockville Centre, New York) — More than 400 seniors attended Senator Todd Kaminsky annual Golden Gathering. The senior health fair offered free flu vaccinations, blood pressure screenings, senior ID cards, and a variety of other helpful resources from local community organizations and government agencies.

“Ensuring our senior citizens have adequate access to health and community services are essential to our community,” said Senator Todd Kaminsky. “I hope that our seniors walked away from today’s event with the information and resources they need to keep them healthy and improve their quality of life.”

Senator Kaminsky extends his thanks to all of the local organizations, government agencies, and business that graciously donated their time and resources to make this such a successful event:
