| ISSUE: EASTER 2018, FAMILY, COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT, PARKS AND RECREATION

(Brooklyn, NY) Senator Roxanne J. Persaud will bring families together for an Easter Egg Hunt on Saturday, March 24, 2018, from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. at Canarsie Park, in Brooklyn.

This family fun community-centered event is expected to excite and engage hundreds of families: There will be light refreshments, an appearance by the Easter Bunny and other fun-filled activities.

“SD-19 Easter Egg Hunt is one more way to serve the community. I am happy with the response and support from the community because families in the 19th senatorial district, deserve opportunities for physical and social activities outdoors. I am proud to be able to host this egg hunt in the district for a second year". Senator Roxanne J. Persaud said.

All events are free and open to the public.
