

NEW YORK STATE SENATOR

Joseph P. Addabbo Jr.

Addabbo to hold mobile office hours at Forest Hills Library

SENATOR JOSEPH P. ADDABBO, JR. April 17, 2018

| ISSUE: CONSTITUENT SERVICES, MOBILE OFFICE, ADDABBO

In keeping with his ongoing effort to provide assistance to the constituents throughout his district, State Senator Joseph P. Addabbo, Jr. will be holding his next mobile office hours in Forest Hills.

Addabbo invites his constituents to the Forest Hills Library, located at 108-19 71st Ave., in Forest Hills, from 5:30 to 7 p.m. on Thursday, April 26 for the chance to meet one-on-one with him. Residents will be able to speak with Senator Addabbo about any community issue or problem they are facing.

By holding these office hours at different locations in his vast Senate District, Addabbo gives his constituents who cannot make it into one of his district offices during normal business hours the chance to speak with him.

“It is always a pleasure getting out into the district and meeting with my constituents because that is where you learn what is really going on in our communities,” Addabbo said. “I understand that many people cannot make it into one of my three district offices while we are open, so these mobile office hours give those people a chance to come speak with me. I look forward to meeting with everyone who comes out.”

Additional mobile office hours are scheduled throughout the year. For more information on the dates and locations of these events, contact Addabbo's Howard Beach office at 718-738-1111.