Sen. Griffo: Area students honored with Youth Leadership Recognition Awards

JOSEPH A. GRIFFO May 3, 2018

State Sen. Joseph Griffo, R-C-I-Rome, announced today that several high school students from throughout his district will receive New York State Senate Youth Leadership Recognition Awards.

The students were nominated by their school districts for the award, which honors well-rounded candidates who excel not only academically but also through leadership in extracurricular and volunteer activities.

The following students have been honored:

Andrew Fauvelle: Adirondack High School, Boonville

Hannah Hutchinson: Adirondack High School, Boonville

Braedon Nanna: Thomas R. Proctor High School, Utica

Emily Norton: Camden Senior High School, Camden

Yupha Lwin: Thomas R. Proctor High School, Utica

John George: Rome Free Academy, Rome

Rachel Milone: Clifton-Fine Junior-Senior High School, Star Lake

Morgan Sweeney: Adirondack High School, Boonville

Adam Mercer: Adirondack High School, Boonville

Mason Pfendler: Adirondack High School, Boonville

Audrey Eady: Thomas R. Proctor High School, Utica

Odin Steel: Thomas R. Proctor High School, Utica

Each student will receive a special certificate and letter from Sen. Griffo.

“It is encouraging to see so many young adults throughout my district have demonstrated so much talent, academic excellence and outstanding community service,” Sen. Griffo said. “We received applications from New York’s future entrepreneurs and leaders, who possess exceptional leadership qualities and the determination to make a difference in the future success of our communities.”
