STATE SENATOR, 37TH DISTRICT

On Monday, July 16th, State Senator Shelley B. Mayer will host the PBS characters Princess Presto and Super WHY for three events at public libraries throughout the 37th Senate District.

Senator Mayer and the beloved children's characters will make three appearances throughout the district starting at the New Rochelle Public Library at 10:00 AM, then going to the White Plains Public Library at 2:00 PM, and the Armonk Public Library at 3:30 PM. At each event, Senator Mayer will begin by reading to the children, then Princess Presto and Super WHY will join the event to interact with the children and take photos.

All three events are free and open to the public.
