| ISSUE: SUMMER READING, PUBLIC LIBRARIES

On Monday, July 16th, State Senator Shelley Mayer hosted 3 Story Time events with PBS characters Princess Presto and Super WHY throughout the 37th Senate District. At each event, Senator Mayer read to the children, after which children had an opportunity to interact and take pictures with Princess Presto and Super WHY. The events were held at the New Rochelle Public Library, White Plains Public Library, and Armonk Public Library, and each event was free and open to the public.
