Senator Elaine Phillips has announced she is partnering with United Way of Long Island and the Long Island Nets again this year for a "Stuff-A-Bus" school supply collection drive to benefit needy students throughout the region.

“As Senator, one of my top priorities is to ensure that our children have the basic tools necessary to acquire the knowledge and skills to not only succeed, but to excel, within and beyond the classroom,” said Senator Phillips. “Thanks to the generosity of the residents in our region, last year’s supply drive was a great success and helped hundreds of students. With the new school year quickly approaching, I am pleased to be coordinating this backpack and supplies drive once again and thank the United Way, Long Island Nets and our local libraries for their assistance.”

Supplies needed include backpacks, pens, pencils, rulers, protractors, lined paper, notebooks, composition paper, folders, binders, basic calculator, glue sticks and highlighters.

The drive is already underway and will run through August 17. Donations can be dropped off at any of the following locations:
