A graphic with a dark background. On the right side, there is a photograph of a person's hands typing on a laptop keyboard. The text is white and arranged in a structured layout. The top left text says 'is tailored to your needs'. Below that, it says 'Classes will be held twice a week for four weeks. You must attend all sessions to successfully complete the training.' Then, it lists three requirements: 'In order to qualify, you must: Live in Senator Sanders' District, Not Have Owned a Business in the Past, Not Currently Own a Business'. Below the list, it says 'Must Apply In-Person at Either of the Locations Below - NO Exceptions - Call Ahead'. At the bottom, there is a white horizontal bar with the text 'Senator Sanders' District Office' underneath it.

Senator Sanders' District Office

Senator James Sanders Jr. (D-Rochdale Village, Far Rockaway) welcomes aspiring entrepreneurs to apply to the first series of the Madam C.J. Walker Institute Business Boot Camp.

The mandatory 4-week boot camp teaches participants how to repair / build their credit, design a personally, tailored budget, and will feature various workshops on topics including business planning, choosing a legal business structure, how to certify as a Minority or Women-Owned Business Enterprise (MWBE), access to capital and more.

Senator Sanders is committed to helping applicants achieve their dreams of business ownership. The program is named after Madam C.J. Walker who is recognized as the first black woman to become a millionaire in America. In addition to being an entrepreneur with a successful line of hair care products, Walker was also a philanthropist, and a political and social activist.
