

NEW YORK STATE SENATOR

Monica R. Martinez

Senator Monica R. Martinez

MONICA R. MARTINEZ January 5, 2019

| ISSUE: NEW YORK STATE SENATE

Suffolk County Legislator Monica R. Martinez is a Brentwood High School alumna and a graduate of Binghamton University, having earned a dual Bachelor of Arts degree in Biology and History in 1999. Monica later attended New York University, attaining a Master's degree in Secondary Education with a concentration in Social Studies. Monica obtained her administrative degree at Stony Brook University in 2006. In 2010, Legislator Martinez was selected to lead the administration of Brentwood's East Middle School as Assistant Principal where she dedicated much of her time enriching the lives of her students. She successfully campaigned for the office of Suffolk County Legislator in 2013 and was elected to represent her home, the Ninth Legislative District.