Will you bring some happiness to an elderly veteran?

Your donation of a greeting card or NEW clothing such as hats, gloves, scarves or socks will make this Valentine's Day special for an elderly veteran who has served our country

Marine Corps veteran and New York State Senator James Sanders Jr. invites you to bring a little bit of happiness to an elderly veteran this Valentine's Day.

On this holiday, when we celebrate the love and affection we have for the special people in our lives, it seems only fitting that we include those who have served our country.

Senator Sanders is collecting greeting cards as well as NEW clothing items such as hats, gloves, scarves or socks, which he will present to elderly veterans in honor of Valentine's Day.

Please drop off donations by Wednesday, February 6, 2019 to Senator Sanders' Office at 142-01 Rockaway Boulevard in South Ozone Park.

If you have any questions, contact Senator Sanders Office at 718-523-3069.
