

NEW YORK STATE SENATOR
David Carlucci

Statement From Senator David Carlucci on NYC's Public Health Emergency

SENATOR CARLUCCI April 9, 2019

| ISSUE: MEASLES

"We cannot ignore the number of people becoming sick from the Measles in New York. This is an 'all hands on deck' situation. The decision to declare a public health emergency in New York City is the right one, and it is time we act at the state level and end non-medical exemptions."
