First elected Columbia County Clerk in 2002, Holly Tanner has faithfully served Columbia County taxpayers for 17 years. Some of the many successes achieved during Holly Tanner's tenure as Columbia County Clerk include saving Columbia County taxpayers millions of dollars through efficient operations, transitioning to computerized records, launching successful marketing and revenue campaigns, as well as an inactive records center.

Clerk Tanner also implemented the popular FAVOR (Find and Assist Vets on Record) Program for Columbia County veterans, and the KISS (Keep Identities of Seniors Safe) Program for Columbia County seniors. Both beloved programs contribute to the sense of community so important to Columbia County.

"Whether it's helping senior citizens, honoring military veterans, or protecting taxpayers, nobody's done more in faithfully serving, representing, and fighting for Columbia County families, and improving Columbia County's quality of life, than Holly Tanner. I'm proud to name her my 2019 Woman of Distinction and look forward to partnering with her on a whole host of important local projects for our Columbia County community," Senator Jordan said.

"It is an honor and privilege being selected by Senator Jordan as her very first Woman of Distinction for the 43rd Senate District. I appreciate Senator Jordan choosing me for this wonderful recognition that will forever mean so much to my family and me. I too look forward to a continued public service partnership with Senator Jordan and her office so we can keep meeting the important needs of Columbia County families,” Columbia County Clerk Holly Tanner said.
