Senator Carlucci Calls On Parole Board To Reexamine & Deny Parole For Convicted Murders In Paula Bohovesky Killing

SENATOR DAVID CARLUCCI June 17, 2019

| ISSUE: PAROLE BOARD

"The Parole Board should have never released Richard LaBarbera who was convicted of murdering 16-year-old Paula Bohovesky" said Senator David Carlucci. "Paula never got to go home and neither should LaBarbera or his accomplice, Robert McCain, who was also convicted of murder. To this day, these men have never shown remorse for their crimes. The Parole Board has only reopened this tragedy for Paula's family and the Pearl River community, rubbing salt into a deep wound. It's my request that the Parole Board reexamine LaBarbera's release and reject McCain's application for parole."
