Senator James Skoufis (D-Hudson Valley) and Assemblymember Jonathan Jacobson (D-Newburgh) hosted an official opening of their joint district office in the City of Newburgh.

“After a long history of being neglected by State government, the City of Newburgh is finally beginning to get its fair share of representation and action,” said Senator Skoufis. “Opening an office in this city is incredibly important to me, along with this location being central in my district, I want to be as accessible as possible to my constituents in Orange and Ulster counties. I’m honored to share this space with Assemblymember Jacobson who I have worked tirelessly with this year to deliver real results in the areas we both proudly represent.”

Assemblymember Jacobson said, “I am excited to have my office in the City of Newburgh. The Newburgh district office is a commitment to the revitalization of the City of Newburgh as well as providing a convenient location to meet with constituents. By having my office across the hall from Senator James Skoufis, constituents can have ‘one-stop shopping’ to meet with both their State representatives.”

The office is located at 47 Grand Street, Newburgh, NY 12550 and is open Monday-Friday, 9:00AM-5:00PM.
