State Sen. Jim Gaughran is accepting nominations for New York State's Empire Business Awards.

The Empire Business Award is the highest award given to businesses by the New York State Senate. This award is received by exceptional businesses who go out of their way to give back to the community. Nominations for the Fall of 2019 are now open and I am looking forward to seeing which local businesses in your community will be nominated for going out of their way to support the small business community and our neighborhoods.

We will be accepting nominations from now until October 31, 2019. Honorees will receive an opportunity to be recognized at our Empire Business Award Recognition event later this year. Anyone may nominate a business for their incredible work by submitting a nomination at www.nysenate.gov/empireawards, or by contacting my office at Gaughran@nysenate.gov or 516-922-1811.
