

NEW YORK STATE SENATOR

Statement: Senator Andrew Gounardes Applauds State Funding for Mother Cabrini Statue

ANDREW GOUNARDES October 15, 2019

ISSUE: COMMUNITY ARTS, LANDMARKS, BROOKLYN, RELIGION

OP-ED

Honoring Mother Cabrini with a public statue

After a city controversy, New York State and accurate by creating several will now step in to fund a statue of Mother Cabrini, America's first saint, who founded dozens of good works institutions in the U.S. not selected - despite the and beyond. I applaud this decision, and am glad she will be honored with a statue.

Mother Cabrini made it her life's work to one else being considered. set up schools, hospitals, orphanages and novitiates to help alleviate the poverty sion, which made the selection, conditions that hundreds of thousands of states on its website that its goal immigrants, many of the Italian-American, is to honor "pioneering women faced in the late 1800s.

She did this in New York City and in ma- celebrate their extraordinary jor cities across the United States. Through contributions to the city and beyond." strong will and persistence, she fought to of poverty.

worthy goal of making public art more fair statues to honor remarkable women, Mother Cabrini was fact that she received double the nominations of any-The She Built NYC Commis-

Mother Cabrini certainly meets that help new Americans build a better life, get standard. She exemplified selflessness and education and healthcare, and ascend out generosity towards those in need, and, in many elected officials also urged the may-Homecrest, Manhattan Beach, Marine an age of xenophobia, reminds us of New When New York City announced the York's rich history as a city of immigrants.

BY STATE SEN.

that the commission should have listened to the people and elected to build a statue the 22nd S.D. in Bay Ridge, Dyker Heights of Mother Cabrini. Following the decision, Bath Beach, Bensonhurst, Gravesend or to honor Mother Cabrini with a statue, Park, Gerritsen Beach, as well as portions including Councilmember Justin Bran-The mayor has publicly stated that the nan and Rep. Max Rose, as did members Midwood.

based on top vote-getters. This raises the question of what standard it was using, and of the Italian-American and Catholic communities.

Following the controversy, Governor Cuomo recently announced that the state why it held a public vote will now step in to fund a statue of Mother only to eschew the results. Cabrini. He has appointed a commission In August, I wrote a letter and is allocating the funds to ensure the to the mayor and the com- statue gets built.

I strongly approve of this decision. I look course and expressing that forward to seeing the statue of Mother the voices of New Yorkers Cabrini and seeing her honored in her by installing monuments that ANDREW GOUNARDES should not have been ignored. rightful place as one of the incredible I believed then, as I do now, women who helped build our great city.

State Sen, Andrew Gounardes represents of Sheepshead Bay, Borough Park, and

Brooklyn, NY -- The following statement can be attributed to Senator Andrew Gounardes (D-Brooklyn):

"I am glad to hear that the state will fund a statue of Mother Cabrini, an incredible woman in history who helped immigrants and impoverished New Yorkers build a better life. The voices of New Yorkers should not have been ignored in the first place, as I said in a letter to the She Built NYC commission and the Mayor in August. Thank you to Governor Cuomo for ensuring that a statue to honor Mother Cabrini will get built, and that Mother Cabrini will get some of the recognition she deserves as one of the amazing women who built our city."

###