Senator Gallivan Congratulates REDC's for Securing State Funding

JIM RANNEY December 23, 2019

| ISSUE: REGIONAL ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT COUNCIL (REDC)

Senator Patrick M. Gallivan (R-C-I, Elma) congratulates members of the Western New York and Finger Lakes Regional Economic Development Councils for securing funding for dozens of local projects. The projects were included in the latest round of state funding awarded through the Regional Economic Development Council program. The Western New York Regional Council has been awarded $67.3 million to support 109 projects and the Finger Lakes Regional Council has been awarded $64.4 million for a total of 94 projects. Statewide, more than $761 million in economic and community development funding has been awarded to ten regions.

“The projects being funded through the Regional Economic Development program will help strengthen our communities and bring new opportunities to the region,” Senator Gallivan said. “I thank the local leaders and stakeholders who have worked together to identify projects that improve the quality of life for residents, spur economic development, create jobs, boost tourism and help grow our economy.”

The Regional Councils were established in 2011 to jumpstart the economy and create jobs by empowering communities, business and academic leaders, as well as members of the public in each region of the state, to develop strategic plans specifically tailored to their region's unique strengths and resources,

Projects within the 59th State Senate District include:

Erie County

- $714,000 to Steuben Foods Inc. of Elma to expand its advanced food and beverage manufacturing facility.
- $100,000 to the Village of Depew to complete an engineering report on improvements to the sanitary sewers in Sewardshed No. 5.
- $943,884 to the Village of Lancaster to repair brick manholes and replace sanitary sewers. The project will improve water quality and reduce sanitary sewer overflows.
