Senator Helming Attends Grand Opening of Fort Hills Performing Arts Center

PAMELA HELMING January 13, 2020

Senator Pam Helming attended the grand opening of Fort Hill Performing Arts Center this past Friday, January 10 with Gordon Estey, President of Board, Sueann Townsend, Executive Director and other members from the community. At the event, the Greater Finger Lakes Jazz Orchestra, Michael Park and Nicolette Hart provided musical performances.

"Fort Hill Performing Arts Center is a beautiful venue that will provide space for musical theatre productions, orchestra performances, visual arts exhibits and many other presentations and ceremonies. The facility will be a centerpiece for the arts in the Finger Lakes Region and will be enjoyed by both residents and tourists for years to come! Congratulations to Gordon Estey, President of the Board of Directors and Sueann Townsend, Executive Director and the entire Fort Hill community on the completion of this amazing project," Senator Helming said.
