Senator James Sanders Jr. Introduces Legislation to Combat Coronavirus Impact

JAMES SANDERS JR. March 25, 2020

In light of the coronavirus pandemic, State Senator James Sanders Jr. has introduced a package of legislation that he believes will help all New Yorkers during this difficult time.

“As an elected representative of the state government, it is my duty and my responsibility to my constituents and the people of New York, to do all I can to ease the burden we are facing due to the coronavirus pandemic,” Sanders said. “It is my belief that his package of legislation will bring relief to many who are suffering during this time.”

S8106 - Extends absentee voting to all residents for all primaries or special elections occurring before June 24, 2020
