Senator Helming and Colleagues Call on Governor for Immediate Assistance for Small Businesses

PAMELA HELMING May 20, 2020

| ISSUE: SMALL BUSINESS DEVELOPMENT

Geneva- Senator Pam Helming today led her colleagues in calling on Governor Cuomo to provide immediate assistance to small businesses. Numerous business owners and organizations have requested assistance to hold the line on unemployment insurance ratings and expenses. Now is the time to offer them assistance so we may restart our economy.

“Small businesses are struggling and we as a state government need to step up and be part of the solution. We need to work together to deliver results for our constituents and get people back to work in a safe way,” said Helming.
