WILLIAMSON- Senator Pam Helming, with Assemblyman Brian Manktelow, Superintendent Greg Macaluso, Assistant High School Principal Hilary Chaya and other school administrators, recently celebrated the graduating seniors of Williamson High School with a parade in their honor.

“Congratulations to all the Williamson High School seniors on their graduation! This celebration was such a testament to the hard work and accomplishments of these students. Again, I extend my deepest congratulations to them and their families and wish them well in their future endeavors!,” Senator Helming said.
