

NEW YORK STATE SENATOR

Leroy Comrie

AS MAYOR DE BLASIO PUTS MORE THAN 3,000 FAMILIES AT RISK, JAMES, COMRIE, WEPRIN, ADAMS TO DEMAND THE CITY PUT HOMEOWNERS FIRST AND STOP LIEN SALE

LEROY COMRIE September 1, 2020

For Planning Purposes

September 1, 2020

Contact: Andrew Taranto | andrew@leroycomrie.org | (678) 577-6329

Sumeet Sharma | sharmas@nyassembly.gov | (646) 591-9483

Stacey Yearwood | syearwood@council.nyc.gov | (646) 596-0465

Officials will highlight Michael Baril, Southeast Queens neighbor who could lose home over $2,800 dispute

What:

As Mayor Bill de Blasio continues to put thousands of homeowners in peril of housing insecurity amid the COVID-19 pandemic, elected officials, homeowners, and housing advocates will rally outside of NYC Department of Finance headquarters to demand immediate cancellation of the 2020 lien sale.

Highlighting his story at the press conference will be Michael Baril, a Southeast Queens resident who, after not receiving notice of a late bill, could lose his home over a $2,800 dispute.

Who:

Attorney General Letitia James

State Senator Leroy Comrie

Assembly Member David I. Weprin,

Council Member Adrienne Adams, BLA Caucus Co-chair

City and state elected officials

Housing advocates

Affected property owner Michael Baril

When:

Wednesday, September 2, 2020 at 1 pm

Where:

1 Centre Street, New York, NY 10007

###