Peekskill, NY – New York State Senator Pete Harckham urged residents of the 40th Senate District to continue following safety guidelines in regard to the coronavirus pandemic as winter arrives and new infections spike in the region.

Harckham also noted that testing for the coronavirus serves as an effective response to the pandemic. It identifies individuals who are infected and allows them to receive quick treatment and be isolated from others. Testing helps find others who may be infected as well.

Below is a list of places in the 40th Senate District where residents can get tested for Covid-19.

Please note: You will NOT be able to simply walk-in and get tested at any of these locations. They ALL require an appointment and, in some cases, a doctor's order. Please be sure to call ahead to make an appointment.

Also, testing kits are limited in many areas.
