

NEW YORK STATE SENATOR

Andrea Stewart-Cousins

Senate Majority Leader Andrea Stewart-Cousins' Statement on House Passing Bill to Ban Oil Barge Anchorages on the Lower Hudson River

MARY MUELLER December 9, 2020

| ISSUE: HUDSON RIVER, OIL BARGES

"The Senate Majority has been working for years to clean up the Hudson River and banned off-shore oil drilling last year in New York State's waters. The Hudson River is a valuable natural resource and should not become a parking lot for oil barges. I applaud Congressman Sean Patrick Maloney on his continued efforts to protect our environment, wildlife, and the viability of the Hudson River."
