MICHELLE HINCHEY January 11, 2021

| ISSUE: CONSTITUENT SERVICES, KINGSTON DISTRICT OFFICE, STAFF

Kingston, NY...State Senator Michelle Hinchey (SD-46) today announced the opening of her Kingston District Office and named a slate of experienced policy, constituent affairs, and communications staff who will work collaboratively to serve residents of the 46th District. Leah Goldman will serve as Chief of Staff, Jesse Meyer as District Director and Deputy Chief of Staff, Kaylee May as Director of Community Outreach, and Bianca Coppola as Communications Director. Legislative staff based in Albany include Legislative Director Brian Coffin, Legislative Analyst Kelly Zelaya, and Committee Clerk Alyvia Lewter.

“Our Kingston office is up and running, and I am grateful to have such a bright, energetic, and supportive team by my side whose combined skills and genuine love for our region will allow us to meet the needs of constituents across our 5-county Senate District,” said Senator Hinchey. “Our priority first and foremost is to build a strong and responsive constituent services operation. We want everyone—our small business community, teachers, veterans, seniors, farmers, and everyone in between—to consider our office a resource when they need assistance. We’re here and ready to help in any way that we can.”

Constituent services staff include Reginald Earls, Jess Singleton, Emma Cohen, and Wendy Flores and can be contacted at (845) 331-3810 during regular business hours, Monday through Friday, from 9:00 AM to 5:00 PM. Assistance is available in both English and Spanish. The office is located on the first floor of the building and is wheelchair accessible. As a public health measure due to the COVID-19 pandemic, the Kingston office is closed to constituent walk-ins but will remain open for calls and video-conference meetings.

Hinchey is also looking to open offices in Guilderland and the City of Amsterdam and plans to announce locations for both later this month.
