SAMRA G. BROUK January 12, 2021

| ISSUE: ELECTIONS, VOTING

ALBANY, NY - Senator Samra Brouk (SD-55) joins her Senate colleagues to announce the passage of a package of legislation on election reform, including bills that would make absentee voting more accessible and speed up the absentee ballot counting process. Senator Brouk is a co-sponsor of bills included in the package.

“While some governors and other national leaders have tried repeatedly to strip eligible voters of their rights to participate in our democratic process, here in New York we are doing the opposite,” said Senator Samra Brouk (SD-55), a member of the Senate Committee on Elections.

“New York is committed to improving its voting process to ensure that our elections and their results are administered in a timely, fair, and equitable way. These bills are important next steps toward a more just, accessible, and inclusive voting process.”
