Senate GOP Leader Ortt Pens Letter To Attorney General Letitia James Requesting Expanded Investigation Into Cuomo Administration's Covid-19 Failures

ROBERT G. ORTT February 16, 2021

| ISSUE: CORONAVIRUS PANDEMIC; COVID-19; NURSING HOMES

“For the thousands of New Yorkers who lost a cherished loved one in a nursing home, the grocery store worker who can’t get a vaccine because of this governor’s tight-fisted yet incompetent administration of vaccines, and for the professionals who felt compelled to resign from a Department of Health driven not by science but by politics, justice must be served.”

New York State Senate Republican Leader Rob Ortt today penned a letter to Attorney General Letitia James respectfully requesting her office to formally broaden the scale and scope of its investigation into COVID-19 related nursing home deaths to also include an investigation into the clandestine February 10, 2021, meeting held between Members of the Senate and Assembly and top staff members from Governor Cuomo's Administration.

The letter was sent in response to the Governor's bizarre press conference yesterday, which left New Yorkers questioning what else the Governor's office and his Department of Health are secretly hiding. After refusing to apologize and incoherently trying to blame anybody but himself for the emotional turmoil wrought by his own disinformation surrounding nursing home deaths, the Governor added another layer of deception by falsely claiming his administration had notified both houses of the State Legislature regarding the U.S. Department of Justice inquiry into these deaths. The Senate Republican Conference was unequivocally never notified of this inquiry, not even after multiple attempts to get answers on nursing home deaths from the Cuomo Administration.

"This Governor has deceived and lied for months, and even when his Administration's deception comes crashing down around him he's powerless to do anything but continue to deceive and lie. We can no longer allow this Governor to get away with deceiving the people of New York State. There must be a full, top to bottom investigation of the Cuomo Administration's decisions on nursing homes, its subsequent and continuing coverup of those decisions, the mass exodus of Department of Health employees, and the current failures of this administration's vaccination efforts. Our Attorney General was elected to be the "People's lawyer." Our conference is asking the AG's office, acting as an independent state governmental entity, to undertake this investigation and prosecute if there is any criminal liability," said Leader Ortt.

Senate Democrats have rejected the Republican Conference's calls to rescind the Governor's emergency powers no less than fourteen times since last year, and they continue to reject motions to issue subpoenas in light of the Attorney General's report.

Leader Ortt concluded, "The Senate Democrats' very recent decision to apparently revoke the Governor's emergency powers, as reported in today's Wall Street Journal, is no profile in courage. The decision to strip the Governor's executive authority should have been made months ago. The Senate Majority failed to see what is plain to millions of New Yorkers: that Governor Cuomo's dictatorial instincts are destructive to this state. They have been silent enablers in his megalomaniacal effort to dominate state government regardless of how many people get hurt. The ones who have suffered the most are the thousands of families who lost loved ones in nursing homes. Because the Senate and Assembly have failed so miserably in carrying out their constitutional duty to check this governor's executive authority, it is absolutely imperative that the U.S. Department of Justice and the New York State Attorney General carry out full investigations of the Governor's Office and the NYS Department of Health."

"For the thousands of New Yorkers who lost a cherished loved one in a nursing home, for the grocery store worker who can't get a vaccine because of this governor's tight-fisted yet incompetent administration of vaccines, and for the professionals who felt compelled to resign from a Department of Health driven not by science but by politics, justice must be served."

The letter (attached) also asks the Attorney General to immediately direct both the Executive Chamber and the Department of Health to preserve and retain any and all communications -- from March 2020 to present day -- related to the March 25 directive to nursing homes and the subsequent counting and public disclosure of COVID-related deaths. These documents are crucial to ensuring the integrity of any investigation.
