Addabbo thrilled with announcement that NYC will reopen to 100% capacity on July 1

SENATOR JOSEPH P. ADDABBO, JR. April 29, 2021

| ISSUE: COMBATING COVID-19, CORONAVIRUS PANDEMIC; COVID-19; REOPENING, REOPENING NYC, ADDABBO

I am thrilled to hear that New York City is on track to fully open again on July 1. This is great news for our local economy as more people will be able to support our local businesses since our restaurants, bars, offices, stores and shops, and other businesses and facilities will be able to have 100% capacity. This will also go a long way in putting thousands of New Yorkers back to work. I applaud the Mayor for following the science and making this decision. While we are seeing our COVID-19 numbers steadily on the decline, we must continue to get vaccinated if you haven't already, and stay on top of keeping COVID at bay by washing your hands and wearing masks indoors when it makes sense as we do not want the virus or any of its variants to gain another foothold in the city and begin to spread again.
