“For nearly a decade representatives in the 1st Senate District have celebrated the magnificent achievements and accomplishments of the region’s valedictorians and salutatorians,” said Senator Anthony Palumbo. “Now, more than ever, it is important to continue this tradition started by my predecessor Senator Ken LaValle and recognize the hard work and dedication that these extraordinary students have shown throughout their academic careers and in these unprecedented times.”

Assemblyman Thiele stated, “Each year, it is a distinct privilege to honor the tremendous achievements of the East End’s valedictorians and salutatorians. Through challenging times, these students have persevered and their dedication to their academic careers is apparent. I congratulate these extraordinarily accomplished members of the Class of 2021, and wish them continued success in their future endeavors.”

Assemblywoman Jodi Giglio stated: “Congratulations to each of our Valedictorians and Salutatorians on achieving these great honors. I know that each of you will continue to strive and succeed as you move forward in life.”

Assemblyman Joe DeStefano stated: “I think it is important to recognize the extraordinary accomplishments of these amazing students, especially considering the unconventional classroom circumstances of the last year and a half. I wish these young people the best of luck on all their future endeavors.”

h

Assemblyman Steve Englebright stated: “My colleagues and I wish our graduating Valedictorians and Salutatorians all the best as they begin the next chapter in their lives.”
