566A Amends Section 297 ("Procedure") of Article 15 of the Executive Law ("Human Rights Law") to extend the statute of limitations for filing complaints about any alleged unlawful discriminatory practices to the New York State Division of Human Rights (DHR) from one year to three years, consistent with the current statute of limitations for administration complaints to DHR alleging sexual harassment in employment. AYE

674 Revises the criminal procedure law governing motions to vacate a conviction specific to victims of trafficking to permit convictions to be vacated not only for prostitution related offenses but for any conviction where the defendant is a victim of human trafficking. Such motions would be deemed confidential. NAY (Court already has discretion.)

153 Enacts the "consumer credit fairness act"; establishes a 3 year statute of limitations for commencement of a cause of action arising out of a consumer credit transaction where the defendant is a purchaser, borrower or debtor; establishes a notice of lawsuit which must be mailed to the defendant in such a cause of action; establishes certain requirements for the complaint in such an action; provides for arbitration of such actions. NAY (Makes it more difficult and expensive for the lending industry as a whole to collect debts, also make it more difficult for average New Yorkers to obtain credit on reasonable terms.)

1068A Amends the civil practice law and rules by adding section 4549, evidence considering earnings, to bar the consideration of evidence concerning opinions, estimations, measures, or calculations of judgments in personal injury or wrongful death cases from being based on race, creed, color, national origin, religion, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, sex, familial status, marital status, or status as a victim of domestic violence. AYE

3395A Includes the state and all public employers as employers subject to the provisions of the human rights law; includes executive, legislative and judicial employers. AYE

4615A Prohibits the selling or displaying of symbols of hate by municipalities, fire districts, volunteer fire companies, police departments and school districts. AYE

738 Amends section 5-336 of the general obligations law to prohibit any settlement or other resolution of a claim involving sexual harassment or any other form of unlawful discrimination from including any term or condition that requires the complainant, to pay the defendant liquidated damages in the event that the plaintiff violates a non-disclosure agreement. AYE

164 Prohibits state reimbursement of campaign and political committees, or legal defense funds, for payments made on behalf of the criminal defense of a state employee. AYE

1059A Directs the Joint Commission on Public Ethics (JCOPE) to develop an anti-sexual harassment training curriculum required for registered lobbyists. The curriculum shall include materials specific to the lobbying and advocacy industry. Lobbyists who have not completed the training by the required date will be prohibited from engaging in lobbying activities. Training must be completed annually. AYE

766 Adds a new section 5-338 to General Obligations Law to provide that no release of a claim made by an employee or independent contractor against an employer shall be valid if, as part of the agreement resolving the claim, the employee or independent contractor is barred from applying for or accepting future employment with the employer or any entities related to the employer. Applies to public and private employers and employees alike. NAY
(Infringement on rights of employers. Opens door to retaliatory future claims by employees.)

1746A Waives the initial deposit required for new EZ pass holders when the Thruway Authority raises tolls on cash or non-EZ pass users for 60 days from such action. Also permits users to replenish their EZ pass accounts using cash at retailers who offer EZ pass to customers. AYE

5405A Authorizes the use of existing village sewer rents for certain infrastructure payments in the village of Baldwinsville. AYE

812A Establishes a toll free confidential hotline for complainants of workplace sexual harassment to be administered by the division of human rights; makes related provisions. AYE

5237B This bill would make LIPA service providers responsible for the reimbursement of any spoiled food or spoiled medication after a residential home experiences a power outage lasting seventy-two consecutive hours or more. Additionally, the bill would make utility companies responsible for the reimbursement of spoiled food to local business owners. Maximum reimbursement is $540 and $10,700, respectively. AYE

3034A This bill would establish a procedure for intervenors in a utility rate case brought before the Public Service Commission (PSC) to be compensated for their participation. This bill also establishes a "utility intervenor account" to hold such compensation. NAY (Could result in higher electricity costs as the utility will be responsible for paying the reimbursement of the intervenors.)

5084B Establishes the office of mental health, addiction and wellness. This bill would also convene a taskforce to oversee the merger of OASAS and OMH, ensuring that all savings achieved through the merger would be reinvested into the new agency. AYE (Merger will allow individuals to more easily treat co-occurring illness and the complications that result from such illness.)

2995 This bill would allow municipalities to alienate certain parklands without receiving authorization from the Legislature for the purpose of renewable energy generating projects. This bill would exempt solar energy projects that are under two megawatts of generating capacity to be installed in the airspace of a vehicle parking lot without the usual authorization of the Legislature. AYE

2841A Establishes a visiting program for incarcerated people, which gives incarcerated people opportunities for personal contact with relatives, friends, clergy, volunteers and other persons to promote better institutional adjustment and better community adjustment upon release. NAY (Fails to define "personal contact." The primary concern is that the as it is written may allow personal contact that could facilitate the concealed transmission of contraband.)

1848 Authorizes the boards of education in union free school districts and central school districts to establish wards for the purpose of school board elections in Orange County. NAY (Lacks requirements to ensure that election wards appropriately represent communities.)

2053A Establishes school election wards in Rockland county union free and central school districts. NAY (Lacks requirements to ensure that election wards appropriately represent communities.)
