

NEW YORK STATE SENATOR
Thomas F. O'Mara

Senator O'Mara joins the 'Newsmaker' show on WLEA radio in Hornell to discuss the end of the COVID-19 State of Emergency and Governor Cuomo's ongoing efforts to exert unilateral control out of Albany (LISTEN HERE)

THOMAS F. O'MARA June 24, 2021

| ISSUE: NEW YORK STATE LEGISLATURE

Senator O'Mara joined WLEA radio's "Newsmaker" show to discuss the long-overdue end of the COVID-19 State of Emergency in New York State and Governor Cuomo's ongoing efforts to exert unilateral control of New York out of Albany.

Senator O'Mara joined WLEA radio's "Newsmaker" show to discuss the long-overdue end of the COVID-19 State of Emergency in New York State and Governor Cuomo's ongoing efforts to exert unilateral control of New York out of Albany.

On this morning's show, Senator O'Mara also discusses the status of the state Assembly's impeachment inquiry into the governor's abuses of power, the need to fully restore legislative checks and balances in New York government, and shares an overall recap of the 2021 legislative session.

Listen HERE.