| ISSUE: BOATING SAFETY

As we officially enter Summer 2021, more and more Long Islanders will be spending time outdoors and on the water as we have seen boat sales this season at record highs. This means there will be more new boaters that are looking to get out and enjoy the beautiful waterways of Long Island; Safety will be more important than ever! In efforts to keep our boaters safe this season, provided below are resources regarding boating safety precautions.
